At many hotels the guests were so frightened by the vibrations that they hurried into the hall-ways to find out the cause of the trouble. The guests at the Pierrepont house were very much alarmed and many of them went down stairs and asked the night clerk what had happened. They thought an explosion must have occurred.

NEW JERSEY FELT IT.

The Tremor Extended Throughout the Northern Part.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 1.—New Jersey felt the force of the earthquake. Jersey felt the force of the earthquake. The tremor extended throughout the northern part, while the southern sections appears to have escaped the experience entirely. From all of the cities and villages in the northern section the story received is the same. The shock was preceded and accompanied by the low rumbling sound that marks the true earthquake. This trembling motion lasted for several segonds. In some places the estimate of time is as low as 3 seconds, while others place the duration of the dusturbance at from 15 to 20 seconds. The general colirse of the shock was from east to west. There is much difference in the reports as to the true direction of the dusturbances. The early hour is perhaps responsible for this difference of opinion, as the majority of those who felt and heard the shock were awakened from their sleep by the sound, and the vibrations and the culest coased those who felt and heard the shock were awakened from their sleep by the sound, and the vibrations and the quake ceased before they had recovered consciousness and were sufficiently awake to realize the cause of the trouble. The shock does not appear to have been sufficiently strong to cause much damage. In all places the effects appear to have been about the same. Houses were shaken, dishes were broken, but nothing worse than this has been reported. The mountdishes were broken, but nothing worse than this has been reported. The mountain districts appear to have felt the vibrations the most keenly. That section of Patterson, which is situated on higher ground was generally shaken, while the people living in other sections of town report having felt nothing of the effects of the quake. Western Union and S. P. Dispute. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. L—A dispute has arisen between the Western Union people and the Southern Pacific company. The former leases all the telegraph lines of the railroad and operates them as part of its telegraph system. This arrangement has been in force ever since 1877. One of the provisions of the contract provides that the Western Union shall pay Mr. Huntington $190,000 annually. The payment for this year is now several months overdue and the whole trouble is the outgrowth of this negligence on the part of the Western Union.

Western Union wishes a reduction made in this yearly remail. No definite statement can be obtained as to the exact amount which the Western Union would be willing to pay, but it is rumored that a demand has been made for a reduction of at least 33 per cent. The Western Union people claim that there was no opposition on the Pacific coast when the contract was made but during the last few years the company has been subjected to the severest kind of competition.

In view of these facts they claim that the Southern Pacific should be willing to grant a material reduction. Mr. Huntington and the Western Union people have had the matter under consideration for some time and the former is said to have so far declined to make any reduction. He then takes the ground that the lease as it exists is far to both parties, and that the rental is not exorbitant in yiew of the business the Western Union is doing on the coast. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1-A dispute hard to withstand, it will be there as a perpetual monitor to guide. The Christ-light nowhere shines more brightly than in that temple of innocence, the mind of the child. Let every Saint send his child to this college; intellectual and the physical—inis is the true education. It will not do for Latter-day Saints to have their children grow up mentally strong and spirit-ually puerile. The tendency of the age is to school the intellectual man at the expense of moral discipline. Both
